- Is this contract annually renewed?
No
- Do you currently have plans to replace this EPR system?
The contract with our existing supplier is coming to an end in September 24 and subsequently we are planning to go out to procurement and evaluate all potential options.

- Are you currently out to tender to replace this EPR system?
We are currently in the planning phases of a procurement process for an EPR solution, as our current contract ends in September 24. We expect this to formally begin within the next few months.
- If you have recently awarded a new EPR / EHR replacement supplier and system, what is the new supplier and system and when is the current planned go-live date please:
N/A
- Is your current or future EPR contract in a joint-partnership with any other NHS Trust? If yes, which Trust(s):
N/A

System definition: Electronic Patient Record (EPR) – An electronic patient / health record is a digital version of a patient's paper chart.

I hope you find this information of some assistance.

If for any reason you are dissatisfied with our response, kindly in the first instance contact Caroline Smart, Head of Information Governance via the following email address:
